

The largest unused block known is a superb mint horizontal block of ten (5 x 2) showing a top and left sheet margin (Positions 1-5, 11-15R1). This is from the famous Henry C. Gibson collection and is now a part of our holdings of mint early blocks.